Thank you, Andrew, for sending us a draft of the annual NERT stakeholder meeting agenda to review, as well as NERT's 2018 budget. Attached is a document which lists Metropolitan's: (1) comments on the draft agenda, and (2) comments and questions on NERT's 2018 budget. We are looking forward to the call on Monday afternoon to discuss the budget and the stakeholder meeting the following week.

Subject: Nevada Environmental Response Trust 2018 Budget and Annual Meeting

NDEP, US EPA, and NERT Stakeholders:

The Nevada Environmental Response Trust 2018 Budget and all supporting documentation can be accessed via the following link: <https://lepetomaneinc.sharefile.com/d-sfa6efe38f0647829>

- Upon download, the file 00-NERT-TRANSMITTAL-020118.PDF should be opened first.
- The Trust would like to schedule a conference call the week of February 26th to answer any Stakeholder questions on the budget materials. A link is provided at the end of this email to align on a date and time for the call.

With respect to the upcoming annual meeting, and acknowledging our desire to address budget questions ahead of the meeting, we will be modifying the schedule to place an emphasis on our technical presentations as well as providing an opportunity to participate in a tour of the NERT SNWA Dewatering Treatment Plant and other key points along the Las Vegas Wash including a stop along our mid-plume boundary (i.e. the Galleria Road Remedial Action Objective).

- The first day, March 7th, will consist of an entire day (9a - 5p) dedicated to technical presentations.
- The second day, March 8th, will consist of a brief meeting at the on-site Trust office, followed by a tour as described above. The Trust believes this tour will prove to be very beneficial to reinforce some of the key strategic elements discussed during the technical meeting. Following the tour, we will reconvene in the Trust office (or another location if demand dictates) for additional discussion for matters relating to Trust finances. This purpose of this optional financial session would be to respond to Stakeholder questions on matters other than the 2018 budget.

To capture a headcount for the various meetings, please click the links below:

- To provide your availability for a conference call to discuss the NERT 2018 budget: <https://doodle.com/poll/q4wtiatq4mtd4bsn>
- To indicate if you will attend the Wednesday and Thursday sessions: <https://survey.zohopublic.com/zs/2AB03e>

Please feel free to forward these links to others within your organization if not represented in this email.

In addition, a draft agenda for the full day Wednesday meeting is attached. The Trust requests Stakeholder feedback on this by February 12, 2018.

Finally, the Trust will be providing its Fourth Quarter 2017 Investment Performance Report and its 2017 Annual Performance Report by February 16, 2018.

We look forward to the upcoming discussions.

Thank you,

Andrew W. Steinberg
